M'LAUGHLIN TO PUT UP NIXON FOR MAYOR.

This is the Plan to be Carried Through This Evening Though the Former Tammany Leader Says He Does Not Want to Head an Independent Ticket.

Murphy Still Sticks to Col. McClellan, but Jerome Will Help Nixon Shake Up the Wigwam if Some New Move Is Not Made.

From what has developed to-day it appears that Lewis Nixon and George B. McClellan have the whole field in the contest for the Tammany Mayoralty nomination. Mr. Nixon denies that he will be an independent candidate, but makes no secret of the fact that he is out for the Tammany nomination and is going to try to get it.

Back of Mr. Nixon is Hugh McLaughlin, whose executive committee has decided to name him at the meeting this afternoon. Charles F. Murphy remains loyal to McClellan, and it will be McClellan against Nixon on the floor of the convention next Thursday, unless something turns up to change the plans, and this has been a campaign of surprises.

While there is a disposition to ridicule the statement that Comptroller Grout and President of the Board of Aldermen Fomes have been asked by Tammany to accept a nomination from that organization, it is none the less true. A close friend of Comptroller Grout told an Evening World reporter to-day that an emissary from Mr. Murphy made the proposition last Friday, and that Mr. Murphy had the promise of both men to accept the Tammany nomination if it comes to them without conditions.

GROUT IS SILENT.

Mr. Grout would not talk politics to-day. In his speech of acceptance to the Fusion Notification Committee at the home of Mayor Low this evening he will explain his position. The Mayor is understood to be greatly displeased at the prospect of Mr. Grout running on the Tammany ticket.

M. Linn Bruce, Chairman of the Republican County Committee, says it is impossible for Mr. Grout and Mr. Fomes to accept a nomination from Tammany Hall.

"They were nominated," said Mr. Bruce to-day, "on a platform that denounces Tammany Hall as a piratical organization devoted to public plunder and graft. They cannot accept a nomination from such an organization unless it denounces itself and indorses the fusion platform and the entire fusion ticket."

There is no doubt about Hugh McLaughlin being back of the Nixon boom. He would not discuss it to-day, referring interviewers to his statement of last week in which he said that Mr. Nixon was the only man who can get the Democratic vote in Brooklyn.

NO YIELDING BY M'LAUGHLIN.

"We will do right, though the heavens fall," said Mr. McLaughlin. "We want no red-light district in Brooklyn. This is a city of homes. As for what we will do in the convention, I cannot say. Fifty years ago reporters could tell how a prize-fight was fought before it happened, because everything was fixed. In this case the convention is not fixed, and nobody can tell what it will do."

When asked what he thought of the plan to have Tammany indorse Grout and Fomes he said that to ask him to think of such a project was an insult to his intelligence.

There are nine Tammany leaders opposed to the nomination of McClellan, but it is doubtful if they would bolt in the convention. They are J. Nes J. Martin, Bernard Martin, Nicholas Hayes, P. J. Scully, Isaac Hopper and McGuire and O'Neill, who are controlled by Hopper.

NIXON DEFINES HIS POSITION.

Mr. Nixon was surprised to-day to learn that he was credited with the intention of heading an independent ticket. He denied it emphatically to an Evening World reporter in the following statement:

"It should be made clear that I am not an independent candidate and would not think of accepting a nomination on an independent ticket. Nor do I expect to get a nomination under Tammany."

"Regarding my statement of to-day, I wish it to be understood that before deciding to make it public I had not conferred directly or indirectly with any Democratic leader or representative of any political organization in any part of Greater New York. As far as my candidacy is concerned, there can be but one Democratic ticket nominated. There can be no independent ticket."

WOULD ACCEPT TAMMANY NOMINATION.

Mr. Nixon would not further qualify this part of his statement. It was learned, however, that Mr. Nixon would accept a nomination from Tammany Hall and that he has so said and strongly intimated. He has also said that in the nomination of George B. McClellan he sees defeat for Tammany Hall. This is one of the reasons, it is announced, that he has entered the field in the hope of securing the nomination and thereby saving Tammany from utter rout at the polls in November.

"What do you think of the action of Murphy in announcing that Tammany will indorse the nomination of Grout and Fomes?" Mr. Nixon was asked.

"I must decline to comment upon that phase of the situation," said Mr. Nixon.

A moment later he added that the situation reminded him of the discussion in naval circles regarding the superimposed turrets for battle-ships. There had been the question of mounting eight-inch guns in independent turrets and twelve-inch guns in pairs. Mr. Nixon did not make it clear in what respect this illustrated present political conditions. He laughed heartily over his remark, however, and declined to go into details. He said it was a standing joke in naval circles.

LOOKS FOR CLEAR WATERS SOON.

"I am not saying much more than is contained in my statement," added Mr. Nixon, "but I anticipate that the political waters will clear in a few days."

Asked as to his programme for the day, he said pleasantly: "I haven't

MORRIS PARK, Sept. 28.—What will probably be the last fall meeting at Westchester was begun this afternoon. The meeting will extend over a period of twelve days, and then a shift will be made to Brighton, Belmont Park, now in course of reconstruction, is expected to replace Westchester next fall. It will be hard to improve on Westchester as an ideal racing property. Fine weather prevailed this afternoon, but the track was a bit heavy from the showers of yesterday.

The Eclipse course was dry, however, and the two-year-olds met on equal footing. The Matron Stakes, split into two parts, one for fillies and the other for colts and geldings, was the feature of the afternoon. The Jerome Stakes was also an interesting event, though there were only four three-year-olds entered. The attendance was fair.

They held this order half way down the stretch, where Lady Amelia seemed to have the race safe. In the last sixteenth Armenia closed strong and, joining For Luck, the pair passed Lady Amelia in a hot drive. Armenia won by a head. For Luck was two lengths in front of Beldams, who closed strong and beat Lady Amelia half a length for third money. # SHOTS ARE FIRED AT RIOTING WORKMEN

Police Unable to Restrain Men of Consolidated Lake Superior Company, Troops Are Called Out, but Trouble Goes On.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Sept. 28. A mob of the discharged employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, after being put off with promises when they demanded their wages, to-day broke away from all restraint and smashed every window in the magnificent office building of the company in the Canadian Soo, charged upon the street cars and demanded that the conductors and motormen join them and police were prevented from doing further damage by a clever ruse of one of the company's officials, who turned in a fire alarm to divert attention.
Shots were fired in the clash and four policemen and one workman were injured by flying rocks.
Almost every man in the crowd was armed and in the ugliest kind of a mood.

A determined assault was made upon one of the entrances of the building, but the door was defended strenuously by those inside, who fired a large number of shots, none of which, however, took effect.
The authorities have called out the local company of militia and have telegraphed an urgent request to Toronto for both the regulars and more militia. The local militia company is small and totally incapable of coping with the situation.

Orders have been issued to close all the bars in the Canadian Soo, up to the noon to-day none of the saloons have been closed.
Inasmuch as the police are powerless more rioting at this point seems sure. Crowds of idle men fill the downtown streets and the Canadian Soo is completely terrorized.
A meeting of the employees of the company was held in Barnes Hall this morning and its proceedings were of the most heated character. The particular grievance which seems to have inflamed the men to acts of disorder was the promise of pay to-day, when the men who made the promises, the employees believe, knew they could not be fulfilled.

Immediately after this meeting adjourned the men went in a body to the office of the company determined to get their money or "get satisfaction," as they put it.

Notice Started Fight.
The trouble started to-day when the men, assembling at the works for their drive on Grey Friar. The mare came along steadily, however, and won with a bit to spare by a neck.

FIFTH RACE.
Six and one-half furlongs.
Starters, white, jocks, St. H. Fin. Str. P.
Bobadil, 110, O'Neill, 2 1/2 15 7-5 1-2

Start good. Won easily. Time—1:30.4-5.
Bobadil ran in Mr. Drake's colors. He showed remarkable speed, making all the running and winning easily by two and a half lengths from Aurumaster, who was second.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, Sept. 28.—A cold wind and the fact that there was no chance for the invaders to better their position in the race served to keep down the crowd here this afternoon and only a small number of fans saw the next to the last game of the season.

The Highlanders and the Detroit Tigers met for the third time and it looked like a foregone conclusion that the New Yorkers would win if "Grip" sent Tannehill in to do the slab work. To-morrow will be last day and some special features will be added to the game as an extra attraction.

JEROME WANTS $100,000 TO PUT END TO GAMBLING.

THE DISTRICT-ATTORNEY SAYS THE EVIL GOES ON UNCHECKED AND ASKS THE BOARD OF ESTIMATE FOR A CONTINGENT FUND, HIS PURPOSE BEING TO AT ONCE START NEW RAIDS.

WILL WAGE MORE BITTER WAR THAN EVER AGAINST GAMBLERS.

He Spent $50,000 Last Year in His Crusade, but Needs a Greater Sum Now—Will Make the Fight Without Calling on the Police—Hogan Repeats Craft Charges.

District-Attorney Jerome is preparing for another strenuous campaign against the gamblers of New York. It may be even more drastic than the memorable one that wound up with the raid of Canfield's famous resort.

Mr. Jerome this afternoon asked the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for $100,000 for the contingent fund of his office. This is the greatest sum ever asked for by a District-Attorney, and Mr. Jerome gives as his reason that he intends to begin a crusade against the various gambling resorts in the city, and that he cannot do this successfully without money.

Mr. Jerome said in substance this afternoon that the gambling situation was little different at the present time than it has been in preceding years.

GAMBLING WIDE OPEN.

"I have been informed," said the District-Attorney, "that the gambling-houses are running wide open. I intend to close them if it is possible to do so. It is possible, but not without money. Therefore, I have asked the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for $100,000 this year instead of the $75,000 I asked for last year. When I asked for $75,000 they gave me $50,000. Now, that I ask for $100,000 I hope they will give me $75,000. I need the extra $25,000 to close up the gamblers in the right way and if I get it I will do it."

"I have spent the money I received last year in securing evidence against gambling-houses and closing them. I have been kept in touch with the gambling situation and know what should be done."

Mr. Jerome would not say just what kind of a crusade he would launch against the gamblers, but it is understood by those in his office that he intends to begin the most sensational campaign that ever was conducted in this city.

CRUSADE OF WIDE SCOPE.

The scope of the new Jerome gambling crusade will be wider than was any he has hitherto conducted, and profiting by his past experiences he expects far greater results. Mr. Jerome has said that his efforts in the past might have crippled the gambling industry, but that his efforts in the future, provided he has the funds, would give the gamblers a blow from which they could not recover for years.

That the District-Attorney expects little aid from the police in his new gambling crusade is shown by the fact that he asks for such an unprecedented sum for his own office. He intends to gather all the evidence himself without calling upon the police until he is ready to make his grand coup.

HOGAN, ANGRY, SAYS GRAFT IS FLOURISHING

The treatment I have received since I made the charge that graft was still practiced by the police is scandalous," said Magistrate Hogan this afternoon. "I mean my treatment here at Police Headquarters. Why don't you protect me, Mr. Lord? I consider the trials of Patrolmen Doyle, Zimmerman and O'Rourke, of the West Thirty-seventh street station, a farce from beginning to end—simply a means to whitewash the accused policemen."

When counsel for Policeman William F. Doyle, last of the three policemen accused of graft in the Grace Sallich case, requested that Assistant District-Attorney Lord stipulate the evidence taken in the trial of O'Rourke and Zimmerman, a tempest broke forth from the witnesses against the policeman.

Lawyer Jacob Levy, counsel for Max Weinberg first got the attention of Deputy Police Commissioner Elstein. He demanded that the Sallich girl be recalled to the stand. When his request was refused by the Deputy Commissioner, he shouldered his way to the stand.

"This move of Doyle's counsel to get in under evidence previously taken is a part of a plot to protect the trio of officers," then, shaking his finger at the Assistant District-Attorney, he continued.

"If you are sincere, why don't you bring charges against Capt. Ferris and Sgt. Nash, of the West Thirty-seventh street station. You do not dare do it. That fainting spell of Capt. Ferris last night was nothing less than a bluff. He is taking an easy way to prepare himself to slide out of the department in case of further trouble."

Here it was that Magistrate Hogan jumped into the breach with "And I quite agree with Mr. Levy. I appeared at these trials as a witness, but have been treated shamefully." He further scored the conduct of the trial, alleging that to-day's decision was a part of a scheme to whitewash the accused and protect the "men higher up" in the West Thirty-seventh street station.

The hearing was continued. Policeman Doyle will stand on the evidence taken against him by his brother officers. The Sallich girl is charged with aiding in the de-

Twenty-ninth street disorderly house.
